Dear Mr. Le Carre:

I want to thank you for the troubles taken regarding my farce and for your letter. I already got a reply from your literary agent and decided to start to plague Mr. Frayn. A Bennett will be the second target. I've just read your "Perfect Spy" and liked it to the extent that call my son "old son" and write some words with capital letters like Rick (oddly enough he impressed me most, though Pym with Grindel Lauren (one of my favorites) should have logically been closer to my heart). Brotherhood is great, the surname itself makes a lot of a character, in Russia he would ~~be~~ be called Avangard Ivanovich or something like this, we had a fashion for Vladlen (Vl. Lenin) & Electrification Petrovich etc. My play is to be published, if (fingers crossed) I hope next years in Russia will be "Le Carre years" the boom about your books is rising and it's excellent.

Wish you a great success and hope to welcome you when you are in Moscow

Sincerely yours
Michael Lyubimov
