Happy Christmas and New Year! Hope you are in good health and wake up at 5 a.m. every morning to walk with your dog. I published a new book, rather sad and bad. A good news: our famous director Bortko (Idiot, Master and Margarita etc) shot a film after my first (and good) novel. Russian stars + Macdowell, Sangrine Bonner, called Soul of a Spy, to appear next spring or autumn. It's about killing a British mole in the present time Russian intelligence. The team was shooting one month in London, but I and Tanya were not given visas in time, waited 2 months and had to withdraw the passports. Again persona non grata in a subtle way? We try to enjoy life, this year cruised in Norwegian fjords and stayed in Copenhagen, city of our secret love. How is Jane? Your grand-grand children? Still plenty of Puis Fume in your refrigerator? Quite recently I learnt that Chris died, God bless his soul! When we visited your 70 year old friend I thought how old he was, now I think how young! Our best regards to Jane.

I cannot help informing you that 1. A film "Fragile Soul of a SPY" is to be finished by March 2014. It is after my novel, the director is Vladimir Bortko (it's not Vladimir Putin), very famous here (Idiot, Master and Margarita, Dog's Heart after Bulgakov). The film is about killing a British mole in our service, he already filmed in London and Ramsgate, ahead is Montre and Egypt. Apart of Russian stars – Macdowell and two more. 2. I was prevented from going to UK : no visa was granted for 2 months! So I spat and went to Norwegian fjords. How do you feel? Still walking with the dog every morning at 5 a.m.? At your desk until 3 p.m.? Best regards to Jane.
